Organizations: United Way of the Greater Dayton Area: Omega CDC, DECA Prep, Grace United Methodist Church, and Trotwood-Madison City Schools

Stipend: $3,000.00

Nature and Scope

United Way of the Greater Dayton Area (UWGDA) sponsors the Montgomery County Freedom Schools Collaborative, which comprises five sites. The CDF Freedom Schools® program is an educational and cultural enrichment program. Our program provides summer learning for children, to address summer learning loss, and strengthens parent and community involvement. We serve children who have completed kindergarten through eighth grade for six weeks delivering integrated reading, conflict resolution, and social action in an activity-based curriculum to promote social, cultural, and historical awareness.

College students play a key role in the Children's Defense Fund Freedom Schools program as Servant Leader Interns. Servant Leader Interns are responsible for the front-line care and nurturing of the children. Using the Integrated Reading Curriculum, they serve as facilitators in the classroom and as leaders of parent workshops and community outreach activities.

Responsibilities

- Deliver the Integrated Reading Curriculum to a class of no more than ten students for six weeks during the summer months, according to the standards developed by the Children's Defense Fund and the local program sponsor.
- Set up and break down his/her classroom space, including securing and organizing the appropriate materials.
- Collaborate with staff to establish and maintain weekly lesson plans designed to provide a supportive and structured environment for the children entrusted to their care.
- Serve as a Harambee! leader each day of program operation.

- Serve as a leader of afternoon activities and other special events; chaperone field trips.
- Participate fully in the Local Training with United Way of the Greater Dayton Area in Dayton.
- Participate fully in the National Training with Children's Defense Fund May 28th, 2024 – June 2nd, 2024 in Tennessee.
